

I am opposed to the broadband over power lines idea it would disrupt usage of the ham radio band and that would create problems for hams who try hard to supply emergency aid with their radios